Thank you for picking up this booklet: in it, you will find all the detailed information about choral services, organ recitals and concerts in King’s College Chapel between April and July 2019.

Easter Term always sees some important events in the Chapel calendar. This year we have the Confirmation service earlier in term than usual and are delighted that the Bishop of Lincoln, Visitor of the College, will be here to celebrate, confirm and preach at the Sung Eucharist on Sunday May 19th. We will commemorate the life of our beloved Founder, King Henry VI with the Ceremony of Roses and Lilies on Friday 24th May.

Perhaps the grandest occasion of the term is the Sermon before the University. This ancient tradition used to take place on March 25th every year, the ‘Lady Day Sermon’. At some point in the second half of the twentieth century it was moved to the Sunday after Ascension. Our preacher this year is The Rt Hon. David Lammy MP. Over the last decade Mr Lammy has challenged the ancient English universities to review and adapt their undergraduate admissions practices in order to provide more equality of opportunity for all our able young people. His energy for the cause is admirable, and I was delighted that he accepted my invitation to bring some of that energy to the life of the Chapel by preaching for us on Sunday 2nd June.

We will also hear sermons from our two affiliated ordinands at Westcott House, Taylor Carey and Jonathan Sanders. I am also delighted that Canon James Hawkey, until recently Dean of Clare College, but now Canon Theologian of Westminster Abbey, will preach for us on Sunday 12th May.

Our other two preachers this term were nominated by request of Stephen Cleobury, when I asked him whom he would like to hear preach in his final term. Canon Dr Brian Hebblethwaite preaches on Sunday 28th April and Dr Andrew Macintosh will preach on June 16th. Both are former Deans of Cambridge Colleges and Andrew’s return is particularly apt as he was Chaplain of St John’s when Stephen was there as organ scholar in the 1960s, and later Dean (1979–2002).

That this is Stephen Cleobury's final term as Director of Music here is reflected in various ways in the music, as he notes below. It is a great testimony to him that there is such huge interest in helping mark this moment beyond King's. We look forward very much to the three happy occasions when choirs from other colleges and schools will join us, and to enjoying the privilege of an extra turn at broadcasting Choral Evensong on Radio 3 this year. We also look forward to the final services of the academic year with feelings of admiration for what has been achieved and sadness that such an era is coming to an end.
Stephen’s final service will of course also be the final service for about a quarter of the boys and a third of the men: a reminder of just how many young people have served as choristers, choral scholars and organ scholars during his distinguished tenure.

I anticipate greater than usual pressure on space in the Chapel at some services this term, and for that reason we will be issuing tickets on some occasions. If you wish to apply for a ticket please email my P.A. (deans-pa@kings.cam.ac.uk), or write to me enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope. The table below shows which services will be ticketed and the deadline for applications. It would be helpful if individuals would not make requests for more than two tickets in any one application.

Dean
CHORAL SERVICES

Members of the public are welcome at all services. The top stalls are reserved for members of King’s College and their guests. Members of the University, upon making themselves known to the Chapel staff, may be invited to sit in the sub-stalls.

Services are normally sung by King’s College Choir on Sundays, and from Tuesdays to Saturdays. Services on Mondays are sung by King’s Voices, the College’s mixed-voice choir.

Services on weekdays normally last about 45 minutes; at the weekend, they last a little longer — up to 55 minutes. Services of Holy Eucharist on Sundays and Feast Days, at which a sermon or homily is preached and a full Mass setting sung, may last up to an hour and a quarter. Those who are unable to remain in Chapel for the entire service are respectfully asked to sit in the Ante-Chapel.

In King’s Chapel we are using a lectionary devised specifically for our needs: this is because the existing lectionaries provided by the Church of England do not always suit our particular circumstances. The College Lectionary aims to nourish the community for which the Chapel exists, whilst at the same time providing readings which can be heard profitably by visitors without being obscure or mystifying. On Monday evenings, the second reading is a passage from the Centuries of Thomas Traherne.

Plainsong is often sung at services here, and often in Latin; especially at sung Eucharists and when only the choral scholars sing. In particular, the Introit, Alleluia and Communion are usually sung to plainsong from the Graduale Romanum and also, occasionally, the Ordinary parts of the Mass.

The numbers printed next to introits, anthems and motets correspond to those found in the red anthem books; the numbers next to the psalms to those in the blue psalters; the numbers next to plainsong to page numbers in the Graduale Romanum; and the numbers next to hymns to those in the green New English Hymnal.

LUNCHTIME SERVICES

There is a celebration of the Eucharist at 12.30 in a side-chapel on most weekdays. When the choral evening service is Holy Eucharist, the 12.30 service is the Office of Readings, at which we hear and reflect on passages: one from the Bible, and one from the great spiritual writers.

CHAPEL COLLECTIONS

The College receives no money from public or church funds to support the life of the Chapel and Choir, so we ask you to give generously to the retiring collections taken after services and recitals. Envelopes are available throughout the Chapel: please use them for your donation, completing the Gift Aid details if you are a UK taxpayer.

Twenty percent of all donations received in collections is given to charities as determined by the College’s Charitable Donations Committee, chaired by the Chaplain. In the past, grants have been allocated to a wide range of charitable causes, including: Cambridge Hub, Cambridge Mayor’s Day Out, Cambridge University Islamic Society Charity Week, Abbey Meadows Community School, King’s Hedges Educational Federation, STARS bereavement counselling, Arthur Rank Hospice, Blue Smile, Cambridge Student Community Action, and Eddie’s. These grants also drew on funds allocated directly by the College.

The Dean is always pleased to hear from anyone who would like to make a significant or ongoing donation to support some aspect of the Chapel’s life.
Music

This term sees three Evensongs jointly sung with other choirs. On 4 May we celebrate the Amicabilis Concordia and are joined by the choirs of New College, Oxford, Eton College and Winchester College. On 4 June the Choir of Trinity College sings with us. Their director, Stephen Layton, is a former organ scholar of King’s. The annual joint service with St John’s takes place here on 4 July.

At Matins on 12 May we mark the Cambridge Early Music Festival with music by Scarlatti and Monteverdi. At Evensong on that day the première of Anthem for Easter Day is given. The text is by Francis Warner, fellow of St Catharine’s College, and of St Peter’s College, Oxford, and the music is by David Goode, former organ scholar of King’s.

Also to be heard for the first time in the Chapel will be the responses for men’s voices by former chorister Quentin Poole and two anthems by Erollyn Wallen, alumna of King’s (16 May and 13 June). On 14 June the introit and anthem are by Richard Shephard, to mark his 70th birthday and a long association going back to boyhood at the Three Choirs Festival, when Richard was a chorister at Gloucester and I was at Worcester.

On 3 July the BBC broadcasts Evensong at 3:30pm. This features music commissioned by me for the College from John Tavener, Nicholas Maw and Cecilia McDowall. Cecilia’s setting of Psalm 98 will be receiving its première. It is the last of six commissions in memory of a former choral scholar, Michael Boswell.

At three services towards the end of term, including my own final Evensong on 7 July, music has been chosen by choristers, choral scholars and organ scholar leaving us this summer, as well as by me.

Organ Recitals

The list of this term’s recitalists has something of an international flavour, with visitors from Leipzig, Dublin and South Carolina playing, as well as guests from within the UK and our own organ scholars. I am delighted that some of our own choristers will be playing on 15 June. I shall give a recital after full term on 6 July; another event to mark my retirement. The programme has something of an autobiographical slant, which I shall explain in programme notes on the day.

Dr Stephen Cleobury
Director of Music
INTRODUCTORY NOTICES

King’s College Choir Recordings

Choir recordings are available on CD and to download from the College website. By purchasing the Choir’s recordings from us, you are directly supporting the activities of the Chapel & Choir: thank you.

This term we release a new double CD–set of music by the English composer, Herbert Howells. The album features a recording of An English Mass, an enchanting setting that is also one of Howells’ darkest religious works. The more celebratory ‘Collegium Regale’ settings of the Magnificat and Te Deum, recorded in their versions for choir, organ and orchestra, accompany the mass.

A new recording of the Howells Cello Concerto with former King’s chorister and renowned cellist Guy Johnston leads the instrumental side of the new album, recorded with the Britten Sinfonia in the glorious acoustic of the Chapel. A selection of three of Howells’ best-known organ works, performed by Stephen Cleobury, completes the programme.

Howells: An English Mass & Cello Concerto will be released in June 2019.

All recordings are available from www.kingscollegerecordings.com, where you can use the code visitor10 for a 10% discount.

Becoming a Member of the Choir

If you know a boy in school-year 2, 3 or 4 who likes singing and enjoys music, do please consider contacting the Choir Office to learn about becoming a chorister here, at choir@kings.cam.ac.uk or on 01223 331224. Chorister auditions are usually held in January and September. However, we warmly welcome enquiries, and the opportunity to meet those who might be interested, at any time. Likewise, enquiries are welcomed from prospective choral and organ scholars.
