

Statement of Ethics

Our words and actions embody respect for truth, fairness, free inquiry, and the opinions of others.

To respect all individuals without regard to race, colour, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, creed, ethnic or national identity, handicap, or age.

To uphold the professional reputation of others and give credit for ideas, words, or images originated by others.

To safeguard privacy rights and confidential information.

To neither grant nor accept favours for personal gain, and not to solicit or accept favours for the College where a College or University policy or higher public interest would be violated.

To avoid actual or apparent conflicts of interest and, if in doubt, seek guidance from appropriate authorities.

To follow the letter and spirit of laws and regulations in the United Kingdom and internationally.

To observe these standards.
