King's College, King's Parade, Cambridge, CB2 1ST

THE KEYNES BUILDING

Set in the heart of the College, the Keynes Building combines the convenience of en-suite bedrooms in close proximity of the conference facilities and beautiful views of the College grounds. It was completely refurbished in 2020 and has rooms overlooking the exclusive and private Provost's Lodge; other rooms overlook the Chetwynd Court.

BENE'T STREET HOSTEL

Once the home of Barclay's Bank, Bene't Street provides a blend of modern facilities with high ceilings and sash windows. These rooms have the benefit of a large kitchen on each floor. The en-suite rooms have beautiful views of the Chapel and the old town centre and are located within minutes of the College.

MARKET HOSTEL

Overlooking the historic Market Square, these modern rooms are situated just minutes from the College. Market Hostel has the benefit of a large kitchen on each floor, and a variety of bespoke designed bedrooms.

NEW GARDEN HOSTEL

New Garden Hostel adjoins Old Garden Hostel, but is a more recent building. All rooms have en-suite shower rooms and some have balconies with views over the pristine Fellow's Garden. A short stroll leads to the Back Gates of King's.

OLD GARDEN HOSTEL

Old Garden Hostel is a fine example of 1920s architecture. Completely refurbished in 2020 this en-suite accommodation has large windows overlooking a wild meadow on one side and the University Library on the other.

All room prices include complimentary internet, breakfast and tea and coffee making facilities.
