THE HALL

The Hall designed in 1824-1828 in neo-Gothic fashion, offers grandeur on a large scale, suitable for the most prominent of events, it can accommodate up to 316 people. All food is served plated, using the very best produce and locally sourced, where feasible.

Hire of the Hall includes table linen & use of the Back Lawn with the addition of the Chetwynd Room & Keynes Lecture Theatre as wet weather contingency options.

THE SALTMARSH ROOMS

Named after the eccentric bachelor don, John Saltmarsh, these charming and very traditional rooms are located on the first floor with views of the Chapel, Front Court and Webb's Court. Recently restored to their original splendour the three inter-connecting rooms provide a unique setting and convivial dining space for an intimate dinner.

The Saltmarsh Reception Room has to be booked in conjunction with the Study or the Dining Room.

THE BEVES ROOM

The Beves Room has been recently refurbished and is a lovely light room which has views of Webb's Court and the Library. During the summer, the Terrace located just outside the Beves can be used for drinks receptions.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The College always welcomes visitors who wish to come and view the facilities and indeed recommends viewing whenever possible; to facilitate final discussions on costs and other detailed requirements prior to confirmation of booking.

We regret that only one choice of dish per course can be provided; although vegetarians and special diets can be catered for. Please ask for details.

College policy prohibits clients from providing any externally prepared or purchased foods into any dining or meeting areas of the College, with the exception of celebratory cakes.

Unfortunately we cannot allow spirits or liquors to be brought into the College.

Private dining rooms should be vacated by 11.30pm. If an extension is required, please ask for details.

The minimum catering numbers for a private dinner is 10, otherwise a surcharge will apply.

The Hall has a public address system. Discos should be aware that there is a sound limiter of 85 decibels in place.

We ask that clients be seated for dinner by 8.30pm. However, a late dinner service can be arranged at an additional charge.

TRAVEL

Road: The College is only a few minutes away from the M11 motorway, which links London, the Midlands and the North.
