

The King's College Law Society (KCLS) Event
Saturday, 29th October 2022

Programme

Activity	Location	Time
Registration	Chetwynd Room	1.30pm to 2.00pm
Panel - 'The Changing Nature of Human Rights in the UK' Discussion of the continued relevance of the European Convention on Human Rights in the UK. Parameters of the recent changes to migration law for Ukrainian refugees and compare this with the treatment of refugees generally under Article 8. The panel includes Barrister, Miranda Butler (KC 2006); King's College Bye-Fellow, Dr Stevie Martin (KC 2019); current undergraduate Law students, Chloe Barnes (KC 2020) and Owain Jones (KC 2020). The panel will be chaired by current KCLS President, Rose Sargent (KC 2019).	Keynes Hall	2.00pm to 3.00pm
Refreshment Break	Chetwynd Room	3.00pm to 3.30pm
In conversation with Dr Charlotte Proudman Barrister Charlotte Proudman (KC 2013) in conversation with current undergraduate Law students and co-Women's and Non-Binary Officers of KCSU, Beth Doherty (KC 2021) and Mya Saxby (KC 2021). They will discuss Charlotte's work, how law can be used to further gender equality, and they will have a conversation about the real barriers for women in law as well as gender discrimination and sexism in our current legal system.	Keynes Hall	3.30pm to 4.30pm
Afternoon Refreshments Tea, coffee & cake will be served.	Chetwynd Room	4.30pm to 5.30pm
Evensong College Members will be admitted ahead of the public queue at approximately 5.10pm.	Chapel	5.30pm to 6.30pm Doors at 5.10pm
Drinks Reception Guests are invited to enjoy drinks prior to the dinner.	Beves	6.30pm to 7.00pm
Dinner A three-course meal served with wine, followed by coffee. Remarks will be given by The Right Honourable The Lord Phillips of Worth Matravers, KG, PC (KC 1958), Honorary Chair of the KCLS.	Saltmarsh Suite	7.00pm for 7.15pm
Following the Meal Guests are invited to retire to the College Bar.	Bar	10.00pm to 12Midnight