In the name of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, the Father and Son and Holy Ghost and The Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Glorious, and All the Saints of God, We, Henry, by the Grace of God King of England and France and Lord of Ireland, the Sixth since the Conquest, trusting fully in the Goodness of the Ultimate Creator of all things who knows, directs, and settles the prayers of all who trust in Him, from the goods which God in this life has assigned to Us in abundance out of the Grace of his Fullness, have ordained, instituted, founded, and established by apostolic and royal authority two Colleges in perpetuity, viz.:

(1) A College in perpetuity, of poor and needy scholar clerks, engaged in study within the University of Cambridge in the diocese of Ely, and bound to study and progress in the different departments of learning and skill:

Wherefore, wanting to create, set into Statutes and also into Ordinances, certain matters which present right now to Our memory, which We have considered necessary and useful for Our aforementioned King's College, Cambridge, for the scholar clerks, and for other persons, possessions and goods of the same college, and also for the healthy governance of these same, and which are discerned to have regard for the learning, increase, and progress of these same, after first calling upon the name of Christ, We do proceed to those matters, so as to further the memory of this for time to come and in perpetuity.

THE STATUTES

A. THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COLLEGE

1. The College shall be called as heretofore, ‘The King’s College of our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge’, or in Latin ‘Collegium Regale beatae Mariae et Sancti Nicolai Cantebrigiae’.
2. The College shall in law act through its Provost and Fellows; and when so acting may in deeds and other instruments be described as ‘The Provost and Scholars of the King’s College of our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge’.
3. The Foundation of the College shall be the Provost, the Fellows, the Scholars and the persons mentioned in Statute I.
4. The members of the College shall be the Provost, the Fellows, the Associate Fellows, the Scholars, those in statu pupillari who have been admitted under Statute G, and such other persons or classes of person as the Governing Body shall determine by Ordinance.

B. THE GOVERNING BODY

Composition

1. The Governing Body of the College shall consist of:
 - (a) the Provost and all the Official and Extraordinary Fellows, and such Research Fellows and Life Fellows who satisfy the conditions, set out in Ordinances, to be “senior members of the Governing Body”; and
 - (b) four members of the College in statu pupillari who are in residence, at least one of whom shall be an undergraduate and one a graduate student (the “junior members of the Governing Body”); and
 - (c) Such other persons or classes of person as the Governing Body may determine by Ordinance, provided that there are at any time no more than four such persons in total.
2. Notwithstanding Section 1 of this Statute, no person disqualified by law from serving as a trustee of a Registered Charity shall be a member of the Governing Body.
3. The members of the College in statu pupillari who are in residence shall elect the junior members of the Governing Body by secret ballot. The procedure for the ballot shall be determined by Ordinance.

Congregations

4. There shall be held in every academic year a meeting of the Governing Body, to be called the Annual Congregation. The date of the Annual Congregation shall be determined by Ordinance.
5. There shall be at least one meeting of the Governing Body in each Term. These meetings shall be called Ordinary Congregations.
6. The Provost may summon an Ordinary Congregation whenever he or she shall deem it necessary for any purpose, and shall do so on receipt of a request signed by at least twelve members of the Governing Body. Not less than fourteen days’ notice shall be given of the meeting.

7. At every Congregation the Provost, or in his or her absence the Vice-Provost, shall be the Chair, provided that in the absence of both the Chair shall be the senior member of the Council present.
8. All questions put to the vote at a Congregation shall, except in cases where it is otherwise provided by Statute or Ordinance, be decided by a majority of those present and voting, and in the case of an equality of votes the Chair shall have an additional or casting vote.
9. No business shall be transacted at the Annual Congregation unless one third of the senior members of the Governing Body are present, nor at any Ordinary Congregation unless one fifth of the senior members of the Governing Body are present.
10. Nothing in these Statutes shall be construed as preventing a Congregation from transacting business in the absence of the members in statu pupillari through failure of election or any other cause.
11. If from any cause the business of the Annual Congregation is not disposed of by that Congregation, or some adjourned meeting thereof, the Provost, or in his or her absence the Vice-Provost or his or her deputy, shall forthwith summon Ordinary Congregations for the purpose of disposing of such business.
12. An Ordinary Congregation summoned for the purpose of disposing of the business of the Annual Congregation shall have all the powers of the Annual Congregation, whether the one third of the members provided for in Section 9 of this Statute are present thereat or not.
13. Minutes shall be kept of the proceedings of Congregations, and the Minutes shall be accessible to members of the Governing Body at all reasonable times save that the junior members shall not be entitled to receive the Minutes of reserved business as defined in Section 22 of this Statute.
14. The Governing Body shall, by Ordinance, determine the entitlement of those members of the Governing Body described in Section 1(c) of this Statute to receive the Minutes of reserved business, or to attend those parts of Governing Body, Council or Committee meetings at which reserved business is discussed.

Ordinances

15. The Governing Body may make standing orders which shall be called Ordinances. It shall make these as required by these Statutes and may make them with regard to other matters, whether referred to in the Statutes or not.
16. A vote making or amending or rescinding an Ordinance shall be passed only by a Congregation, and in accordance with a recommendation of a previous Congregation that has been circulated to all members of the Governing Body at least seven days before the date of the second Congregation. If the second Congregation rejects the recommendation of the previous Congregation, the recommendation shall lapse.
17. An Ordinance, while in effect, shall be binding on the Governing Body and the College. No Ordinance may be inconsistent with the Statutes of the College or of the University.

Regulations of the Governing Body

18. The Governing Body may from time to time make Regulations for the good government of the College and for the promotion of its welfare as a place of education, religion, learning and research. A Regulation of the Governing Body may be amended or rescinded by a simple majority vote of a Congregation.

Delegation of Power

19. The Governing Body may from time to time appoint committees to exercise powers given in these Statutes, provided that those powers are not explicitly reserved to the Governing Body. The Governing Body will determine the duties and powers of those committees, and their memberships. The committees will exercise the powers determined by the Governing Body, in accordance with the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.

20. The Governing Body will appoint Council, to conduct the general administration and management of the affairs of the College; the Investment Committee, to manage all investments on behalf of the College; the Fellows' Remuneration Committee (Statute B.21), to consider the duties and benefits for Fellows; and such other committees as it determines by Ordinance.
21. The Fellows' Remuneration Committee determines all matters related to the salaries and benefits of Fellows and other academic staff. It reports its general decisions to the Governing Body and individual salaries to Council. The Chair of the Fellows' Remuneration Committee and a majority of its members are chosen to be independent of the College and not members of the College's academic staff.

Junior Members of the Governing Body, the Council and Committees

22. Where junior members are members of the Governing Body, the Council or any other Committee, they shall not attend meetings or parts thereof during the transaction of business declared by the Chair of the meeting, whose decision shall be final, to be reserved business; nor shall they receive papers dealing with such reserved business, although at the discretion of the Chair they may receive minutes of the decisions taken. Reserved business shall include appointments, promotions, elections and matters affecting the personal position of the Provost, Fellows, junior members or staff of the College, the admission of individuals or their academic assessment, and any other matter at the discretion of the Chair.

C. THE COUNCIL

1. The Council shall have such authority in relation to the general administration and management of the affairs of the College as shall from time to time be entrusted to it by the Governing Body, and such authority may be withdrawn or modified in like manner. The Council may, to the extent of the authority so entrusted to it, exercise all powers which by the Statutes are given to the Governing Body by name, but it shall not be authorised to perform any acts which a Congregation is expressly required or empowered to perform by these Statutes.
2. The Council shall exercise a general superintendence over the educational work of the College, and shall have the power of electing to scholarships, of awarding prizes, of appointing and of dismissing the staff of the College, and of performing such other acts as it is by the Statutes expressly required or empowered to perform.
3. The Council shall, to the extent of the authority entrusted to it, have power from time to time to make Regulations for the good government of the College and for the promotion of its welfare as a place of education, religion, learning and research. A Regulation may be amended or rescinded by a simple majority vote of the Council.
4. The composition of the Council shall be determined by Ordinance, provided that the Provost shall always be a member.
5. The procedure for the conduct of Council business shall be determined by Ordinance.

D. THE PROVOST

Qualifications and Duties

1. The Provost shall be distinguished for learning and shall be that person who, in the judgment of the Fellows of the College, is best qualified to secure the good government of the College as a place of education, religion, learning and research.
2. The Provost shall exercise a general superintendence over the affairs of the College, shall, if present, preside ex officio at all Congregations and meetings of the Council, and shall have the power, in all cases not provided for by these Statutes, by Ordinance or by Regulation, to make such provision for the good government and discipline of the College as he or she shall think fit.
3. The Provost shall ensure that the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations of the College are adhered to in the government of the College.

Election

4. The electors to the Provostship shall be the senior members of the Governing Body, excluding the Provost.
5. A Provost may be elected to assume office on the date when his or her predecessor will leave office.
6. When an election for the Provost is required, Council will appoint an Election Committee to organise the election. It will call a congregation of the electors to explain the election process and timetable.
7. When the electors have determined on a single candidate, the committee will call a congregation of the electors to be held in the Chapel. Notice of the election and the candidate to be considered will be given to each elector at least fourteen days in advance. No person shall be elected as Provost unless he or she secures the votes of a majority of all the electors.
8. At the election congregation, the Chair (normally the Vice-Provost or his or her deputy) will require each elector to make the following declaration:

I, M. N., do solemnly declare that I will choose as Provost the person who is in my judgement best qualified, according to the Statutes, to secure the good government of this College as a place of education, religion, learning and research.

9. After this declaration has been made by all the electors present, the electors will each write and sign their own votes. Scrutineers, appointed by the electors, will collect the signed votes and announce the number of votes for and against the candidate. If a majority of all the electors are present and vote to elect the candidate, then the scrutineers shall pronounce him or her duly appointed as Provost-elect. If at the first ballot the candidate does not secure sufficient votes to be elected, a second ballot shall follow immediately in the same manner as before.
10. If, after the second ballot, the candidate does not secure sufficient votes to be elected, the congregation shall be adjourned, after fixing a date for a further congregation to be held not less than seven days later. The procedure followed at any adjourned meeting shall be the same as described in this Statute for the first meeting. Notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to all electors.
11. If, after the office of Provost has been vacant for twelve months, no person has been elected, the power of the electors to fill that vacancy shall cease and the power to appoint a Provost shall devolve upon the Crown. But where an election is made and then becomes void under Section 14 of this Statute, the power to appoint shall not be transferred to the Crown until twelve months from when the election became void, if that is later.

12. The Vice-Provost shall inform the Provost-elect of his or her election, and if he or she accepts the office, notice of the election and acceptance shall forthwith be certified to the Visitor under the Common Seal of the College. The Provost-elect shall be admitted to office within fourteen days of Full Term following the election or following the office becoming vacant if that is later. The Visitor, failing whom the Vice-Provost, shall admit the Provost-elect to the office.
13. A person elected or appointed to be Provost shall be admitted, after making the following declaration in the presence of the Fellows assembled in the College Chapel:

I, M. N., elected Provost of the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge, do solemnly declare that I will govern the College according to the Statutes thereof, and will endeavour to the utmost of my power to promote the interests of the College as a place of education, religion, learning and research.

14. The election of a Provost shall become void if, before admission, he or she declines the office, or retracts acceptance having accepted, or dies, or if, before he or she is admitted, the Visitor, acting at the request of two thirds of the electors, after making due enquiry, rules in his or her discretion that for some good reason the election shall be annulled. If an election becomes void a new election shall then be held. This Statute shall apply to the conduct of this election, except that the minimum period of notice for any meeting of the electors shall then be reduced to seven days.

Residence

15. The Provost shall reside in College (or in another residence approved by the Governing Body) during Full Term, unless absent on College business, or on account of illness, or other grave cause approved by the Council.

Emoluments

16. The emoluments of the Provost, to include a residence in College, shall be determined by the Fellows' Remuneration Committee and reported to the Governing Body.

Tenure

17. The Provost shall hold office for a total of no more than ten years, and for such initial period as the Governing Body shall determine at the time of election. A Provost shall be eligible for re-election from the end of this initial period by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a specially convened Congregation of the Governing Body.
18. The Provost shall not be present at any Congregation or at any meeting of the electors to the Provostship held under the provisions of this Statute.

No candidate shall be elected a Fellow without the concurrence of at least one half of the Electors present at the election; the Provost, or in his or her absence the Vice-Provost, or, in the absence of both, the senior Fellow present, having a second or casting vote in case of an equality of votes.
6. When the Electors to Fellowships for Official, Extraordinary or Research Fellowships meet to elect a Fellow, each member present who is entitled to vote shall make the following declaration before proceeding to make the election:

I do solemnly declare that I will vote for those candidates who are [that candidate who is] in my judgement the most fit to be Fellows [a Fellow] of the College as a place of education, religion, learning and research.
7. The date of commencement of a Fellowship shall be determined by the Electors at the time of election, subject to the signing of a contract of employment for any associated qualifying office.
8. Within a reasonable time after the election, the Provost or in his or her absence the Vice-Provost and at least ten of the Fellows shall meet in the College Chapel and shall call upon the several Fellows-elect to make the following declaration:

I, M.N., elected a Fellow of this College, do solemnly declare that I will observe all the Statutes of the College, and will endeavour to the utmost of my power to promote the interests of the College as a place of education, religion, learning and research.

Following the declaration, the Fellows-elect are admitted into their Fellowships in the customary manner by the Provost or the Vice-Provost.
9. If any person elected into a Fellowship shall fail to make the declaration in Section 8 of this Statute as reasonably requested, his or her election shall be void.

Requirements and Privileges of Fellows

10. Subject to these Statutes, the tenure, rights, privileges and duties of a Fellow at the time of first election, and also on any renewal of the Fellowship and any associated qualifying
