

KING'S COLLEGE CHAPEL

SERVICES AND MUSIC
MICHAELMAS TERM
2016

NOTICES

NON-RESIDENTS' WEEKEND SERVICES

Choral Evensong on Saturday 24 September will be the first public service since its restoration at which the organ will be heard.

On Sunday 25 September the morning Choral service will feature an address by Professor Michael Proctor FRS, Provost. Its title, 'The Paths of Glory', is a quotation from Thomas Gray's 'Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard'. The service is intended as a very positive contribution to the University's Alumni weekend. Non-Resident Members of College are especially welcome together with alumni of other Colleges and members of the public.

SUNDAY PREACHERS THIS TERM

We continue this term the series 'Women of Spirit' and look forward to being introduced to the lives and significance of some inspiring women. Dr Jane Williams, Associate Dean of St Mellitus College, London, will speak about Amy Carmichael, missionary to India, and the Dean will explore aspects of the life of Hildegard of Bingen. Three preachers have chosen to speak about American women: Dr Beth Phillips of Westcott House will introduce us to Flannery O'Connor, a writer who is especially well-known for her short-stories, Professor Geoffrey Ward FRSA, Principal of Homerton will base his sermon on the poet Emily Dickinson, and the Chaplain will preach about the Roman Catholic social activist and practical visionary, Dorothy Day.

On Remembrance Sunday our preacher will be Canon David Porter who is Chief of Staff and Strategy at Lambeth Palace – the headquarters of the Archbishop of Canterbury. David has extensive experience in working for reconciliation in the aftermath of conflict, especially in his home country of Ireland.

The full sequence of preachers this term is as follows:

SEATING IN CHAPEL

The top stalls are reserved for members of King's College and their guests. Members of the University are invited to make themselves known to the Chapel staff and may be invited to sit in the sub-stalls.

RESTORATION OF THE CHAPEL ORGAN

This term marks the return of the Chapel organ, which has been silent since January of this year. During this time it has undergone the most significant restoration since the 1930s: all but the largest of the 4,388 pipes were removed for cleaning and repair, while the internal structure, wind and electrical systems have all been overhauled.

If you are a returning visitor, you may notice that the sound is still the recognisable sound of the King's College organ, with improvements to the internal balance and a brightening of the sound as a result of extensive cleaning. Visually, you may also notice subtle enhancements thanks to the cleaning of the woodwork and the regilding of the front pipes. Out of sight and earshot, though, every element of this magnificent instrument has been cleaned, repaired and restored, and it is now fit for the next generation of those who play it, sing with it, and listen to it.

We shall be celebrating the return of the organ on Tuesday 4 October when the distinguished American recitalist, Nathan Laube, plays at 7.30 p.m., and on Wednesday 9 November, also at 7.30 p.m., when former King's organ scholar, Thomas Trotter (KC 1979), joins the Choir and Britten Sinfonia in a programme which will end with Poulenc's Organ Concerto.

MUSIC

At the Sung Eucharist on Sunday 2 October and on Christmas Day Haydn's Kleine Orgelsolomesse will be accompanied by strings. On Tuesday 1 November, All Saints' Day, the Chapel Choir will be joined by the tenors and basses of King's Voices in Widor's Mass in f sharp. The next in the sequence of anthems commissioned in memory of the late Michael Boswell (KC 1959) will be heard for the first time on Tuesday 22 November. This is Bob Chilcott's (KC 1973) setting of O sing unto the Lord. The Saturday organ recitals resume this term. Stephen Cleobury will give the first of these on Saturday 1 October at 6.40 p.m., and Richard Gowers, Organ Scholar, brings the series to a close on Saturday 26 November with a complete performance of Messiaen's great celebration of Christmas, La Nativité du Seigneur. Richard is a former award holder from the Nicholas Danby Trust and Jemima Stephenson, who plays on 12 November, is a current award holder.

MONDAY EVENING SERVICES

These are sung by King's Voices, and normally follow the familiar pattern of Choral evensong. However on Monday 28 November there will be an Advent Sequence: readings on some of the traditional Advent themes (light, darkness, penitence, judgement) interspersed with apposite choral pieces. Also on Monday evenings we will this term have a reading from the spiritual writings of Julian of Norwich as the second lesson.

COLLECTIONS AT SERVICES

We are introducing a slightly new system this term. From now on all collections will be primarily to support the work of the Chapel. However 20% of all money received in collections will be given to charities as determined by the College's Charitable Donations Committee chaired by the Chaplain. Please give generously. Envelopes are available for your gift throughout the Chapel, please use them to contain your donation – completing the Gift Aid details if you are a UK taxpayer.

The Dean is always pleased to hear from anyone who would like to make a significant or ongoing donation to support some aspect of the Chapel's activity and service.

ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS SERVICES

The PROCESSION FOR ADVENT is a College Service for which tickets are issued. Members of the public who would like to attend are invited to queue for any seats that may become available on the day.

The CHRISTMAS EVE CAROL SERVICE was originally conceived as a gift to the City of Cambridge and it remains a gift from the College to the wider world. Those hoping to be able attend need to be prepared to queue for several hours in advance. The queue is admitted from 1.30 p.m. The service runs from 3.00 p.m. until 4.30 p.m. and is broadcast by radio to an audience of millions around the world. We regret that this service is not suitable for very young children. A limited number of seats are available for those unable to queue. Please see the College website for details of how to apply.

Our SUNG EUCHARIST on Christmas Day begins at 11.00 a.m. Again a queue forms, and the congregation is admitted from 10.30 a.m. The service will last about 90 minutes. All are most welcome.

DAILY SAID SERVICES

In addition to our choral services, more intimate acts of worship are offered each weekday in one of the side chapels. Normally, the Eucharist is celebrated at 12.30 p.m. If there is a Sung Eucharist in the evening, the 12.30 p.m. service that day will be the Office of Readings, at which we hear and reflect on passages both from the Bible and from the great spiritual writers.

RECORDING

Please note that the use of cameras, recording equipment, video cameras and mobile phones is not permitted in Chapel. Some services and recitals are recorded each week for webcasts. You can listen to these throughout the year on the King's College website.

SERVICE LIST

Copies of this booklet are available for sale at the King's Visitor Centre, please leave this one for others to use. Braille and large print service booklets are available from the Dean's Verger for Evensong and Sung Eucharist services.

CHORAL SERVICES

Services are normally sung by King's College Choir on Sundays and from Tuesdays to Saturdays. Services on Mondays are sung by King's Voices, the College's mixed voice choir. Exceptions are listed.

KING'S COLLEGE CHOIR CDS

Choir recordings are available from the King's College website and from the King's College Visitor Centre during the day. By purchasing the Choir's CDs from King's College, you are directly supporting the activities of the Chapel and Choir.

BECOMING A CHORISTER

If you have, or know someone who has, a son in Years 2, 3 or 4 at his school who likes singing and is enthusiastic about music, we would encourage you to get in touch with Caroline in the Choir Office, who can tell you about the benefits that come with being a chorister, and answer your questions about life in the Choir and School. Caroline can be contacted at choir@kings.cam.ac.uk or on 01223 331224.

The next chorister auditions are planned for Saturday 21 January 2017, though we warmly welcome enquiries and the opportunity to meet those who might be interested at any time.
