

Data Protection Policy Chapel and Choir

How we use your personal information

This statement explains how King's College ("we" and "our") handles and uses information we collect about those who use or participate in the Chapel and Choir. We use data to ensure we maintain contact with those who wish to be informed about events in the Chapel or involving the Choir and to maintain legal records where required, including licenses necessary to travel with children, and for children to perform. We also store certain data relating to members of the Choir and their families as this is needed to make sure their needs are met both when the Choir is in residence and when it is touring. Such personal data is used by the College to communicate with those concerned and to fulfil our statutory duties. Data for those involved with the Chapel and Choir may also be used by the College in ways described under other parts of the Data Protection policies, particularly those that deal with visitors, alumni, staff, and online sales. You may wish to see those policies too.

The controller for your personal data is King's College, King's Parade, Cambridge, CB2 1ST.

The Data Protection Officer for the College is the Office of Intercollegiate Services Ltd, 12B King's Parade, Cambridge; 01223 768745; college.dpo@ois.cam.ac.uk. OIS Ltd should be contacted if you have any concerns about how the College is managing your personal information, or if you require advice on how to exercise your rights as outlined in this statement.

The person within the College otherwise responsible for data protection at the time of issue, and the person who is responsible for monitoring compliance with relevant legislation in relation to the protection of personal data, is the Freedom of Information Officer, foi@kings.cam.ac.uk

How your data is used by the College

In most cases the legal basis for processing is the legitimate interest of the College (GDPR¹ 6(1)(f)), including maintaining relationships with Chapel visitors, maintaining our historically and culturally significant Chapel with its choir services and other events, and maintaining our relationships with parishes with whom we have historic links. Some data is held by consent (GDPR 6(1)(a)). The health (including allergens) data is processed to protect your vital interests (GDPR 6(1)(d)), and as special category data it also requires a purpose under article 9, which in this case is consent (GDPR 9(2)(a)) or, in the case of children who cannot legally provide consent, their vital interests (GDPR 9(2)(c)). Some information is required as a legal obligation of the College (GDPR 6(1)(c)): we are required to apply for licences under The Children and Young Person Acts 1933 and 1963 and The Children (Performances and Activities) (England) Regulations 2014, and Magistrates' Court permission is required to take children abroad on Choir tours. We may request DBS checks on adults associated with the choir, on the basis of article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR legal obligation and condition 18: (Safeguarding of children and individuals at risk), and condition 12 (Regulatory requirements relating to unlawful acts and dishonesty etc.) of Schedule 1, Data Protection Act 2018, before allowing contact with children who are part of the Choir. Information about weddings, confirmations and baptisms is processed under the College's legitimate interest (GDPR 6(1)(f)) as a place of religion, and being special category data, the relevant article 9 section is that processing is carried out in the course of the Chapel's legitimate activities (GDPR 9(2)(d)). The information about marriages is, in addition, required by law (GDPR 6(1)(c)).

¹ Broadly speaking the UK data protection legislation uses the same legal bases as the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

GDPR 5(1)(b) allows the College to process personal data which was collected for other purposes, for the purposes of the historical record.

The chief ways in which personal data is held and used by the Chapel are:

1. Names and contact details of those who receive the term's services booklet by post.
2. Names and contact details of those who seek to use the Chapel for an event, or who approach us for information.
3. Correspondence and contact details for people, including clergy in College Livings, in parishes where the College is Lay Rector and co-patrons of multi-parish benefices or team ministries. This may include personal data about others in the parish.
4. Details of those getting married in Chapel, as required by law.
5. Baptismal and confirmation records.
6. Information regarding members of the Choir that is necessary when the Choir is in residence and when it tours. This includes name and contact details for Choral Scholars, probationers and choristers and their parents, results of voice trials, Choir members' semi-annual measurements (for cassock fitting), and passport numbers (or photocopies) as well as correspondence with Choir members or probationer/chorister parents. It also includes medical and dietary requirements as provided by the Choir members and those travelling or dining with them. This information is shared when necessary with the agents who manage Choir tour arrangements.
7. Contact details for Choir alumni and supporters.
8. Information regarding artists and other performers engaged to work with the Choir or in the Chapel for concerts and /or recordings.
9. Contact details and attendance records and audition notes for non-College members of King's Voices.

Your rights

You have various rights under applicable data protection law, including some rights to:

- access your personal data;
- correct incomplete or inaccurate personal data we hold about you;
- erase the personal data we hold about you;
- restrict our handling of your personal data;
- transfer your personal data to a third party;
- object to how we are using your personal data; and
- withdraw your consent to us handling your personal data.

Please keep in mind that data protection law is complicated, and these rights won't always be available to you all of the time.

If you choose to exercise any of your rights, including your right to erasure, this will not prejudice our relation with you. In certain circumstances, we may not be able to comply with your request. For example, where you request us to erase your data, we may not be able to do this if there is a legal requirement to maintain records that we have to comply with.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with us or the ICO, the supervisory authority for data protection issues in the UK. If you are based outside of the UK, you can find your relevant supervisory authority here.

If you want to exercise any of these rights or have any questions, please contact us at foi@kings.cam.ac.uk; alternative contact details are given at the top of this Policy.
