Data Protection – Staff and Senior Members

How we use your personal information – Staff and Senior Members

This statement explains how King's College ("we" and "our") handles and uses information we collect about our staff and senior members ("you" and "your"). For these purposes, "staff" is intended to include employees, workers, casual workers, volunteers (including work experience students) and contractors (e.g. undergraduate supervisors, ad-hoc or temporary maintenance, kitchen or catering staff etc.). In broad terms, we use your data to manage your employment and/or membership with the College, including your role and the performance of it, how we support you as an employer, and how you are paid, as well as other statutory requirements.

The controller for your personal data is King's College, King's Parade, Cambridge, CB2 1ST. The Data Protection Officer for the College is the Office of Intercollegiate Services Ltd, 12B King's Parade, Cambridge; 01223 768745; college.dpo@ois.cam.ac.uk. OIS Ltd. should be contacted if you have any concerns about how the College is managing your personal information, or if you require advice on how to exercise your rights as outlined in this statement. The person within the College otherwise responsible for data protection at the time of issue, and the person who is responsible for monitoring compliance with relevant legislation in relation to the protection of personal data, is the Freedom of Information Officer, foi@kings.cam.ac.uk.

Unless otherwise stated, the legal basis for processing your personal data is that it is necessary for the performance of the employment contract or membership agreement we hold with you, or for statutory purposes (e.g. processing your monthly salary, tax and pension contributions).

Consequently, we do not routinely screen your social media profiles but, if aspects of these are brought to our attention and give rise to concerns about your conduct, we may need to consider them.

For certain posts, we may use the Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) and Disclosure Scotland to help assess your suitability for certain positions of trust. If this is the case, we will make this clear to you in separate correspondence. Certificate and status check information is only used for this specific purpose, and we comply fully with the DBS code of Practice regarding the correct use, handling, storage, retention and destruction of certificates and certificate information. We recognise that it is a criminal offence to pass this information on to anyone who is not entitled to receive it.

Who we share your data with

For staff and senior members we would normally publish (on our website and elsewhere) your name, photograph (if you have provided one), your email and College contact phone number and basic biographical information relating to your College and University posts.

We share your personal information where necessary and appropriate across the collegiate University. The University and its partners (including all of the Colleges) have a data sharing protocol to govern the sharing of information about staff and members of the College. This is necessary because they are distinct legal entities. The parties may share any of the above categories of personal information, and the agreement can be viewed in full at <https://www.ois.cam.ac.uk/policies-and-protocols/data-sharing-protocols>. Any transmission of information between partners is managed through agreed processes that comply with UK data protection legislation. We share relevant personal data with relevant government agencies (e.g. HMRC) and your pension provider. Information is not shared with other third parties without your written consent, except where we are required to do so by law (e.g. certain personal data is required to be disclosed under the Freedom of Information Act) other than your name, role and employment contact details which are made publically available. Generally, personal data is not shared outside of the European Economic Area.

We hold all information for the duration of your employment and for no more than seven years after the end of your employment or cessation of your membership. In the case of volunteers, this information will be held for no more than three years.

- I* personal details, including name and your preferred personal contact details (if we still have these);
- II your previous salaries and other earnings, pensions and the amounts you have paid in statutory taxes;
- III records of your performance appraisals with your line manager;
- III records, where they exist, of any investigation or review into your conduct or performance;

- V any references we have written subsequent to your employment with us.

Those marked with an * relate to information provided by you, or created in discussion and agreement with you.

We reserve the right to retain the personal data longer than the periods stated above, where it becomes apparent that there is a need to do so – for example, in the event of a major health or personal injury incident, records may need to be kept for up to forty years.

We then store in a permanent archive:

- i) your full name and title;
- ii) your job title(s) or College affiliation(s) and the corresponding dates of employment/membership;

Your rights

You have the right: to ask us for access to, rectification or erasure of your data; to restrict processing (pending correction or deletion); and to ask for the transfer of your data electronically to a third party (data portability). Some of these rights are not automatic, and we reserve the right to discuss with you why we might not comply with a request from you to exercise them.

Failure to provide the information reasonably requested of you may result in disciplinary action taken by the College, which could ultimately lead to your dismissal from employment.

You retain the right at all times to lodge a complaint about our management of your personal data with the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
