WELCOME FROM THE DEAN

I look forward to welcoming members of the public and the wider University to join us at services and concerts through Term. All those attending, other than current members of King's, need to book their place in advance, and this can easily be done free of charge through Eventbrite, either by using the QR code on page 5, or through the College website via the link at the bottom of this page. If none of that works for you, please call into the King's College Visitor Centre on King's Parade.

In addition to public services, we offer some services and chaplaincy events exclusively for current students, staff and Fellows. Details of these are posted on the College intranet, on the 'Attending Chapel Services' page.

At Evensong on Wednesdays the second reading will be an excerpt from Four Quartets, by T.S. Eliot. This is a series of meditations—originally published separately—which share common themes of time, meaning and the Divine. This term's excerpts come from the first two Quartets: 'Burnt Norton' and 'East Coker'. They raise questions like: 'How do we perceive time, and how is the Divine—the infinite—discerned in lives that are bounded by time?'; and 'where is meaning in the midst of repetition and finitude?' Eliot's questions concern us all, and leave us wondering . .

The Revd Sarah Atkins, Chaplain of Magdalene College, will preach on Quinquagesima Sunday, 27 February; we look forward to welcoming her. Additionally, we will hear a sermon from Yvette Day, Master over the Choristers, as well as addresses from Fellows Professor Alan Macfarlane and Dr James Dolan, who will be responding to Pontius Pilate's question to Jesus, 'What is truth?', from the perspective of their own academic disciplines. Prof. Macfarlane is an anthropological scientist and Dr Dolan specialises in science communication.

At Evensong on 6 February we will commemorate Dr Erika Swales, Life Fellow of King's, who died in July 2021. Dr Swales had been a Fellow for over forty years, and was a long-time Director of Studies in Modern Languages. This service will be open to the public, as usual.

On Saturday 19 March we will hold a memorial service for former Director of Music and Life Fellow, Sir Stephen Cleobury. Sir Stephen died in November 2019, but the pandemic has delayed our collective wish to commemorate and celebrate his life, achievements and huge contribution to the life of this Chapel. Admission to this service will be by invitation only; we regret that we will be unable to admit anyone without an invitation.

Looking ahead to next term, the Sermon Before the University will be given at Matins on Sunday 1 May and the Bishop of Ely will conduct a service of Confirmation on Sunday 8 May.

The Revd Dr Stephen Cherry
Dean

INTRODUCTORY NOTICES

ORGAN RECITALS

This term we will have four recitals on consecutive Saturdays in February; the Director of Music and organ scholar will contribute one recital each, and it is a pleasure to welcome Rachel Mahon and Sietze de Vries as guests. The recitals follow Evensong and last for no more than forty minutes.

MUSIC

The Choir returns to Chapel this January after a very busy and successful Michaelmas Term. Whilst the well-earned Christmas vacation means that we do not make it back in time for Epiphany, we do celebrate the special feasts of Candlemas, Ash Wednesday and the season of Lent. Musical highlights include repertoire by the late Peter Maxwell Davies, Judith Bingham, and King's alumna, Honorary Fellow and Master of the Queen's Music, Judith Weir. Please see page 24 for outline details of the Easter at King's festival.

Assistant Director of Music Ben Parry bade farewell to College in December, and Ralph Woodward has been appointed as Interim Assistant Director of Music. As usual, King's Voices will sing Evensong on Wednesdays, with the exception of 2 February when they will sing the Holy Eucharist of Candlemas. We are grateful to Ben for his tireless work with King's Voices over nearly ten years, and we welcome Ralph to the chapel community and look forward to his time with King's Voices.

Daniel Hyde
Director of Music

JOIN THE CHOIR

We are looking for boys in Years 2–4 at school who have a love of music and a desire to learn. If you know a boy who loves singing, please get in touch with us for an informal discussion about becoming a Chorister at King's.

If you are considering a Choral or Organ Scholarship to King's College, get in touch with Daniel Hyde, Director of Music, for an informal discussion.
