WELCOME

Thank you for picking up this booklet: in it, you will find all the information about choral services, organ recitals and concerts in King's College Chapel between September and December 2019.

Last July we said farewell to those who were leaving the Choir, and to Sir Stephen Cleobury, who had served as Director of Music since 1982. Stephen was knighted in the Birthday Honours in June, for services to Choral Music. This recognition of his outstanding contribution was greeted with delight within the College as well as much more widely. It was also a unique occasion, as no previous Director of Music has been knighted while in post here. The various farewell events for Stephen were all characterised by a mixture of appreciative recognition of his extraordinary achievements, together with warm affection for all that he has given over the years, not least as he inspired, mentored, educated and coached so many generations of choristers, choral scholars and organ scholars.

Over the summer, we said farewell to Malwina Sołtys, who had been Deputy Dean's Verger for four years. Malwina made a tremendous contribution to the life of the Chapel in her time with us and had a very positive impact in many ways. We will all miss her. We wish her well in her new career as an event executive with Alzheimer's Research, UK.

As the new academic year begins, we welcome those who are new to our community and to the life of the Chapel. We do this formally, behind closed doors, with a special service for Freshers and their families on Friday 4th October. The following Sunday afternoon, 6th October, we will publicly admit to the Choir as full choristers the probationers who are now at the beginning of Year 6, and welcome our new choral and organ scholars. On Monday 14th October we will welcome new members of King's Voices, our mixed-voice choir. The service is exclusively for our College community and takes the form not only of an act of worship in its own right, but also an explanation of what's going on in Evensong — hence its title, 'Evensong Unwrapped'.

Most unusually, but very happily, we also welcome a new Director of Music. Daniel Hyde joined us in June and has been working with the Choir over the summer. It is a tremendous pleasure to welcome him back to King's where, as an undergraduate, he was an organ scholar. Since leaving us back in 2003, Daniel has had posts at Jesus College, Cambridge, Magdalen College, Oxford and, most recently, St Thomas Episcopal Church, Fifth Avenue, New York. It has been a pleasure to have Daniel among us in recent months and we look forward with enthusiasm to enjoying and benefitting from his contribution to the life of the College, Chapel and the world of music and scholarship more widely.

The familiar pattern of services continues this term, with the exception that our lunchtime service, usually a Eucharist, will be at 12.15pm. Furthermore, we are using the Common Worship lectionary, rather than that from the Book of Common Prayer, at our sung celebrations of Holy Eucharist.

The Revd Dr Stephen Cherry
Dean

CHORAL SERVICES

Members of the public are welcome at all services as guests of the College. The top stalls are reserved for members of King's College and their guests. Members of the University, who make themselves known to the Chapel staff, may be invited to sit in the sub-stalls.

Services are normally sung by King's College Choir from Tuesday to Sunday. On Mondays, services are sung by King's Voices, the College's mixed-voice choir.

On weekdays, services normally last about 45 minutes; at the weekend, they last a little longer — up to 55 minutes. Services of Holy Eucharist on Sundays and Feast Days, at which a sermon or homily is preached and a full Mass-setting sung, may last up to an hour and a quarter. Those who are unable to remain in Chapel for the entire service are respectfully asked to sit in the Ante-Chapel. Worshippers are not permitted to bring any bag, rucksack or suitcase into King's College Chapel which is larger than airline hand-baggage size. As there is no cloakroom facility, please do not bring larger items with you.

In Chapel we are using a lectionary devised specifically for our needs: this is because the existing lectionaries provided by the Church of England do not always suit our particular circumstances. The College Lectionary aims to nourish the community for which the Chapel exists, whilst at the same time providing readings which can be heard profitably by visitors without being obscure or mystifying. On Monday evenings, the second reading is a passage from the writings of the Afro-American theologian and Civil-Rights leader, Howard Thurman (1899–1981).

Plainsong is often sung at services here, and often in Latin; especially at Sung Eucharists and when only the choral scholars sing. In particular, the Introit, Alleluia and Communion are usually sung to plainsong from the Graduale Romanum and also, occasionally, the Ordinary parts of the Mass.

Where numbers are printed next to hymns, they correspond to those in the green New English Hymnal; when this is not the case, the text of the hymns will be provided on a supplementary sheet of paper. The text of the psalms may be followed in the blue psalters.

LUNCHTIME SERVICES

There is a celebration of the Eucharist, lasting 20–25 minutes, at 12.15pm in a side-chapel on most weekdays. When the choral evening service is Holy Eucharist, there is a short non-Eucharistic form of worship.

PREACHING THIS TERM

The sermons and homilies this term will be preached by the Dean and Chaplain respectively, with the exception of Sunday 27th October, when we welcome The Revd Dr Hannah Cleugh, Senior Chaplain to the Bishop of Ely.

CHAPEL HOSPITALITY

Over the summer the College has reflected on the hospitality that it offers those who attend services in Chapel. We warmly welcome all who wish to attend our services, but recognise that they do so as our guests. We therefore work hard to ensure that people who come have the information they need to form appropriate expectations of what we are doing, and are able to follow what is happening. Such explanation is needed as what we do here does not conform to the model of a parish church or even a cathedral.

We recognise that a very wide range of people come to services: some are local and attend regularly, and most days there are many who are visiting us from afar, and who will only ever be here once, though perhaps they are familiar with what we do from webcasts, broadcasts and recordings. Some are devout Christians, some members of others faiths, some agnostic and some atheists. All are welcome. None are coerced to joining-in anything they find uncomfortable, but we do ask people to sit and stand together as far as physical constraints allow, to stay for the whole service and to respect the needs to those who are worshipping.

Our primary concern as a College is for the health and safety of those who attend services, and that we conduct services in ways that are appropriately dignified, so that people who attend can have some time out from the pressures of everyday life, and engage in the worship of God and the appreciation of the building and music in an unhurried way that brings them personal peace and refreshment. We understand that some people who wish to share in our services will have special needs, and while we will always do everything possible to help all those who present themselves for services, we warmly invite those who have, or intend to bring, people with special needs to be in touch with us in advance, so that we can do all we can to prepare for their visit.

CHAPEL COLLECTIONS

The College receives no money from public or church funds to support the life of the Chapel and Choir, so we ask you to give generously to the retiring collections taken after services and recitals. Envelopes are available throughout the Chapel: please use them for your donation, completing the Gift Aid details if you are a UK taxpayer.

Twenty percent of all donations received in collections is given to charities as determined by the College's Charitable Donations Committee. In the past, grants have been allocated to a wide range of charitable causes, most of which are based in Cambridge, but whose reach are variously local, national or international. In many cases they are charities with which Members of College have an association.

King's College is a registered charity, and the generosity of donors around the world supports our teaching, research and buildings, as well as the activities of our Chapel and Choir. To discover more about the £100m King's Campaign, and how you can help, please visit:

ORGAN RECITALS

As always, the Director of Music and the two organ scholars contribute to the weekly recital series, and this term we shall also hear a recital by Christopher Whitton of Emmanuel College. Visiting players from beyond Cambridge include Margaret Phillips, current tutor to the organ scholars and a Professor at the Royal College of Music; Tomé Olives from Menorca; and former organ scholar Richard Gowers. Also performing in the first concert of the series is the Thisted Church Boys' and Men's Choir, from Copenhagen.

MUSIC

The Choir returns to Chapel this autumn after a very successful tour to Australia in July and August. Showcasing two programmes of music heard here in Chapel throughout the year, all nine performances were received to great critical acclaim. Within this term's regular pattern of choral services, Handel's Coronation Anthems will appear at weekend Evensongs early in the term, prior to an all-Handel concert on Wednesday 6th November; accompanied by the Academy of Ancient Music, this concert given by the Choir will mark the opening of the Cambridge Music Festival. On Saturday 19th October we welcome members of the Herbert Howells Society at Evensong; following a service of music by Howells, Senior Organ Scholar, Dónal McCann, will put the recently restored organ through its paces in a programme designed specifically for our guests that evening.

King's Voices sings weekly on Mondays, and on 28th October we look forward to welcoming Aldeburgh Voices to join them for Evensong for the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude. For the Feast of All Souls' Day, King's Voices will sing the setting of the Requiem by former Director of Music of King's, Sir Philip Ledger. On Remembrance Sunday, 10th November, Fauré's Requiem will be given with orchestral accompaniment at the service sung by the Chapel Choir at 6.00pm.

BECOMING A MEMBER OF THE CHOIR

If you know a boy in school-year 2, 3 or 4 who likes singing and enjoys music, do please consider contacting the Choir Office to learn about becoming a chorister here, at choir@kings.cam.ac.uk or on 01223 331224. Chorister auditions are usually held in January and September. However, we warmly welcome enquiries, and the opportunity to meet those who might be interested, at any time. Likewise, enquiries are welcomed from prospective choral and organ scholars.

Daniel Hyde
Director of Music

KING'S COLLEGE CHOIR RECORDINGS

Choir recordings are available on CD and to download from the College website. By purchasing the Choir's recordings from us, you are directly supporting the activities of the Chapel and Choir: thank you.

This term we release two new recordings; the first, which has just been released, is the latest in our Evensong Live series. A collection of anthems and canticles sung by the Choir and recorded live in services of Evensong, Evensong Live 2019 features music by British composers, from the 16th-century composers, Byrd and Weelkes, right through to contemporary composers, Judith Weir and Nicholas Maw. It includes nearly eighty minutes of choral music, beginning with Hubert Parry's iconic I was glad and ending with Gerald Finzi's masterpiece Lo, the full, final sacrifice.

In November we release a live-recording of the 100th-anniversary service of A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols, presenting the world-famous service in high-definition and surround-sound for the first time in its 100-year history. A Festival of Nine Lessons & Carols: The Centenary Service will be released as an SACD-hybrid, compatible with all CD players, and packaged with a beautiful hard-back booklet containing photographs and essays about the service.

All recordings are available from www.kingscollegerecordings.com, where you can use the code visitor10 for a 10% discount.

ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS SERVICES

Members of the public and University Members are warmly invited to join Members of the College for special services on Advent Sunday, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. Some information is given below, but further details about admission to these services can be found on the College website.
