ATTENDING CHAPEL SERVICES

WE warmly invite members of the public and of other colleges in the University to join us for almost all our choral services. Our services are open to people of all faiths and none, and we enjoy the diversity of the congregations that gather day by day.

Most days, anything up to an hour before a service begins, a queue forms at the main entrance to College. Half an hour before the service, the College gate is opened and the queue moves forward. A quarter of an hour before the service, people are admitted to the Chapel itself. Five minutes before the service begins, the main gate of College is closed and, to ensure a calm and timely start to all our services, any who arrive later are not admitted.

Inside College there are three queues. The queue alongside the Chapel is the main one and is for members of the public. Members of the University are invited to queue on the north side of the Chapel. Only members and staff of King's College and School, and choir families, are invited to queue in front of the Gibbs' Building.

When you come to a service, please bear the following four points in mind:

- ✳ We ask you not to bring any bag that is larger than airline hand-luggage size.
- ✳ We ask that you take a seat in the Ante-chapel if you cannot commit to remaining for the whole service. For Evensong allow up to an hour; for Holy Eucharist an hour and a quarter.
- ✳ We do not allow recording or photography of any kind in services and strongly request that phones be turned off.
- ✳ We regret that there are no public toilet facilities available in College.

If you or anyone attending with you has any special needs that we might be able to help you with, or if you are coming in a group of ten or more people and wish to be seated together, or if you have any other questions about attending, please contact the Chapel Manager, whose details are printed on page 4.

INTRODUCTORY NOTICES

from THE DEAN

THIS YEAR, we continue the pattern developed last year of beginning services before Term, in September. We look forward to welcoming many Non-Resident Members of College, as well as University alumni, to the services on 28 and 29 September. The Provost will give the address at the morning service on 29 September.

Michaelmas Term is always very positive and forward-looking in Chapel, and we begin by admitting new Choristers and welcoming new senior members of the Choir on Sunday 6 October.

On Sunday 13 October, Dr David Good will contribute to our series of addresses on the subject 'What is Truth' by engaging with questions of truth and trust.

Visiting preachers this term are The Rt Revd James Jones, former Bishop of Liverpool, The Venerable Vanessa Herrick, former Archdeacon of Harlow, and the Rt Revd Tim Stevens, former Bishop of Leicester.

If you are interested in attending the Advent Procession, A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols on Christmas Eve, or the Eucharist on Christmas Day, please check our website for details by scanning or clicking the QR code on page 3. For A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols there is an online ballot which takes place in the first two weeks of November.

It is one of the genuine pleasures of King's College Chapel that so many people attend our services. We do all that we can to make this not only a pleasant and pleasing experience but also a meaningful and inspiring one. The music and the words of the services are prepared with great care and times of silence are also important. While we do not ask those who attend to participate any more than they are comfortable with, we do ask all who share in our services to refrain from any activities or behaviours that may be distracting to others or which might detract from the overall atmosphere of the service. We would particularly ask that those who come into the inner Chapel do not leave early, and that everyone at services refrain from using their phones for the duration.

During this Term we will continue to experiment with the amplification of the spoken word. If you have any observations on this matter please pass them to me by email via the address below, which you can click or type.

ORGAN RECITALS

THIS term we welcome Harrison Cole as Assisting Organist and Alexander Pott as organist to King's Voices. There will be four Sunday organ recitals, each starting at 2.30 pm and lasting forty minutes. All programme details may be found towards the back of this booklet. Admission to these recitals is free and all are welcome, as well as to the service immediately following each performance.

MUSIC

FOLLOWING a sell-out summer tour to Australia, the Choir returns to Chapel in our usual pattern of weekly services.

In November, the annual Requiem for Remembrance Sunday to commemorate the faithful departed will be sung to the setting by Duruflé (10 November) and at the slightly earlier time of 5.30 pm; Advent Sunday falls on 1 December, and our annual Procession at 6 pm will begin the journey towards Christmas. There will be two concerts this term, on 1 and 15 November. All details, and box-office information, may be found on pages 34–35 of this booklet.

King's Voices sings weekly on Mondays, under the direction of Ralph Woodward; they will also sing on Tuesday 29 October during the School half-term holiday.

The membership of King's College Choir changes every year. If you would like to know more about being a member of the Choir, or to hear about life as a Chorister, Choral Scholar or Organ Scholar, please contact me by email to begin an informal exploration.
