

The King Henry VI Circle Lunch

Saturday, 18 May 2024

PROGRAMME

Activity	Location	Time
Registration and light refreshments Please register your arrival before the lunch. Tea, coffee and soft drinks will be served.	Chetwynd Room	11.30am
Meet the Provost and College Update Dr Gillian Tett became the College's 45th Provost on 1 October last year. Join her to learn more about her and her journey to King's, her early impressions and ambitions for the College, and ask her your questions.	Keynes Hall	12.15pm – 12.45pm
Lunch A three-course meal with wine.	Hall	1.00pm – 2.30pm
A choice of two College Walking Tours (please join one) 'Gibbs: 300 years of conversation' a tour of the historical Gibbs Building with our Domus Bursar and Fellow, Polly Ingham. Tour fully booked. 'King's Portraits: Artists and sitters, both historical and contemporary'. View some of the incredible art pieces adorning the College walls with King's Fellow, Professor Nicolette Zeeman.	Gibbs Tour: Meet in Front Court. Tour fully booked. Art Tour: Meet in Bar	2.45pm – 3.45pm
Afternoon Refreshments Tea and coffee will be served.	Chetwynd Room	3.45pm – 4.15pm
Academic Talk: 'Living and dying in early medieval Cambridgeshire: Communities in the landscape' King's Research Fellow in Late Roman and Early Medieval Archaeology, Dr Katie Haworth (KC 2021), and current student, George Ellison (KC 2020), will share their recent research on what it was like to live and die in early medieval Cambridgeshire.	Keynes Hall	4.15pm – 4.45pm
Evensong Join members of the public for Evensong. If you would like to attend, please let us know and we will reserve seating for you.	King's College Chapel	5.15pm for 5.30pm