

The King Henry VI Circle Lunch

Saturday, 4 March 2023

Activity	Location	Time
Registration and light refreshments Please register your arrival before the lunch. Tea, coffee and soft drinks will be served.	Chetwynd Room	From 11.30am
College update A brief review of what's been happening in College recently and the progress of the King's Campaign by the Provost	Keynes Hall	12.15pm – 12.45pm
Lunch A three-course meal with wine.	Hall	1.00pm – 2.30pm
'Bloomsbury Art at King's' A College walking tour, visiting some notable pieces of the College art collection. Uptake for this session has been so tremendous that we will run 2 tours in parallel. One tour will be led by Dr Sophie Pickford and the second tour will be led by Professor Jean Michel Massing.	Departing from the College Bar	2.45pm – 3.30pm
Exhibition: 'Women at King's' We draw on the King's Archives to look at the College's long history of engagement with female staff, students and colleagues.	Wine Room	2.45pm – 4.00pm
'Evolution in a changing world: moth crop pests and butterflies in remote islands' with Dr Gabriela Montejo-Kovacevich Dr Montejo-Kovacevich is an evolutionary biologist and King's College Research Fellow. Her current and future work focuses on rapid evolutionary adaptation. More information about Gabriela and her work can be found on the event webpage.	Keynes Hall	4.10pm – 4.30pm
Afternoon Refreshments Tea and coffee will be served.	Chetwynd Room	4.30pm – 5.15pm
Evensong If you would like to attend, please join the College queue in front of the Gibbs for access c. 5.15pm.	King's College Chapel	5.15pm for 5.30pm