Eyewitness Archives: A Journey Through Britain's Past In the centuries since its foundation, King's College has witnessed dramatic and transformative developments in the world outside our walls. From plagues to puritans, Norman conquest to Soviet espionage, the records found in the College archive bear witness to some of the key events in our history and moments that have shaped Britain today. The exhibition is open exclusively for King's members between 2.00pm and 3.00pm. From 3.00pm, it will open to all alumni as part of the University Alumni Festival.	Audit Room	2.00pm – 4.30pm
In Conversation with Professor John Dunn and Sandra Tusin King's Fellow, Professor John Dunn, and student and Co-Chair of King's Politics Society, Sandra Tusin (KC 2024), discuss the geopolitics of climate change and why it remains such a complex and persistent political and social challenge. There will be an opportunity to ask questions during the session.	Keynes Hall	3.00pm – 4.00pm
Refreshment Break Hot drinks will be served.	Bar	4.00pm – 4.45pm
