MUSIC

The Choir and the Academy of Ancient Music open the Cambridge Festival on Wednesday 11 November with a performance of Haydn The Creation, marking the 200th anniversary of the composer's birth. Sir David Willcocks (KC 1939), formerly Organ Scholar and Director of Music, will be 90 in December, and the inclusion of some of his compositions in the repertoire for this term marks the beginning of the College's celebrations of his birthday.

On Saturday 21 November, the eve of the Feast of Christ the King, the first performance will be given of Anthem for Christ the King, the latest in a sequence of anthems by David Goode (KC 1991), formerly organ scholar, which set texts for important liturgical feasts specially written by Francis Warner.

The College's resident string quartet, the Dante Quartet, will coach and lead an orchestral ensemble for the liturgical performance of Duruflé Requiem on Remembrance Sunday, 8 November.

ILLUSTRATIONS

This term's illustrations represent scenes from the life of King David. Photographs of glass in the Chapel are reproduced from photographs taken by Richard Lloyd Morgan.

Cover: David processing before the Ark of the Covenant,
Nuremberg Bible 1483, King's College Library.

October: Saul arming David, detail from the Whichcote Chapel.

November: David with the head of Goliath, Chapel windows, north side.

December: King David, Organ Screen, 19th Century.

CAROL SERVICES

The PROCESSION FOR ADVENT is mainly intended for members of the College, but seats may be available for those who are prepared to queue. Those for whom a seat can be found will be admitted at 5.40 p.m.

The CHRISTMAS EVE CAROL SERVICE is primarily intended for the City of Cambridge and the general public. Apart from those reserved for members of College and their guests, seats are kept for those who are prepared to queue. The queue is admitted at 1.30 p.m. The service begins at 3.00 p.m. and ends at about 4.30 p.m. We advise that this service is not suitable for young children.

Carols are sung at the SUNG EUCHARIST on Christmas Day. The service begins at 11.00 a.m. and ends at about 12.30 p.m. Apart from those reserved for members of the College and their guests, seats are also available for those who are prepared to queue. The queue is admitted shortly after 10.30 a.m.

Become a Friend of King's and support King's College, Chapel and Choir

The Chapel of King's College, Cambridge is one of the most important medieval buildings in Europe. Since its Foundation by King Henry VI over five centuries ago, choral services have been an essential part of the daily life of the College.

The architectural majesty of the Chapel and the great musical quality of the Choir are admired and loved by millions of people the world over. Yet the College is solely responsible for the maintenance of the Chapel and the costs of the Choir.

Over the years our friends and supporters have contributed to the restoration and conservation of the Chapel, funded choristerships and bursaries, provided music practice rooms and renovated the Chapel music library. There is still much that needs to be done and for which we need your help.

By becoming a Friend of King's you will benefit from a privileged relationship with the College and help secure the future of the Chapel and Choir, ensuring that they remain world treasures for centuries to come.
