

KING'S COLLEGE
CAMBRIDGE

CHAPEL SERVICES
EASTER AND
LONG VACATION
TERMS 2015

NOTICES

In 2015 we are celebrating the 500th anniversary of the completion of the stonework of the Chapel. One of the ways we are commemorating this in Chapel itself is by offering two series of special sermons.

In the first we will focus on the legacy and message today of a number of 'King's Divines'. These are members of the College who have made an exceptional and distinctive contribution to Christian theology, spirituality or worship. This term will see sermons on Orlando Gibbons, by the Chaplain, and Eric Milner-White, by the Dean.

In the second series we focus on one of the four fundamental objectives of the College as defined in the Statutes, 'Education', 'Religion', 'Learning' and 'Research'. For some of these, we are inviting people from institutions with which we have deep historic connections to help us. This term we have three such sermons. Tony Little, the Headmaster of Eton will address 'Education', Erica Longfellow, Dean of Divinity at New College Oxford will address 'Religion' and Lord Williams, Master of Magdalene College and former Archbishop of Canterbury will address 'Research' in the Sermon Before the University.

Full details of both sermon series are given at the back of this booklet.

SAID SERVICES

Morning Prayer is said in one of the side chapels Monday–Friday each day of full term at 8.15 a.m..

There will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 12.30 p.m. each Wednesday of full term.

On Sunday 17 May and Sunday 7 June there is also a service of Holy Communion at 8.30 a.m. in the Memorial Chapel.

RECORDING

Please note that the use of cameras, recording equipment, video cameras and mobile phones is not permitted in chapel.

Some services are recorded for webcasts – further details may be found on the College website at www.kings.cam.ac.uk/choir/webcasts.html.

SERVICE LIST

Copies of this booklet are available for sale at the King's Visitor Centre, please leave this one for others to use.

SERVICE BOOKLETS

Braille and large print service booklets are available from the Dean's Verger for Evensong and Sung Eucharist services.

CHORAL SERVICES

Services are normally sung by King's College Choir on Sundays and from Tuesdays to Saturdays. Services on Mondays are sung by King's Voices, the College's mixed voice choir. Exceptions are listed.

ORGAN RECITALS

We are introducing a new time for the weekly Saturday recitals, which were instituted by Harold Darke when he was acting organist during World War II. Recitals will begin at 6.40 p.m. and last about 40 minutes.

There is an immediate exception in that the first recital of term will begin at 7.00 p.m. It is being given by former organ scholar David Briggs (KC 1981), who will be playing his own arrangement for organ of Mahler's Resurrection Symphony. This occasion will also mark the end of this year's Easter Festival.

In our continuing series of recitals by former organ scholars (as part of the 500th celebrations), Ian Hare (KC 1968) plays on 9 May, and on 6 June Francis Grier (KC 1973) is joined by his daughters and a former chorister, Andrew Marriner, in a performance of Messiaen's Quartet for the End of Time. The Choir will earlier sing Francis's Magnificat at Evensong.

MUSIC

On Sunday 14 June the second of six new anthems commissioned through the generosity of the late Michael Boswell (KC 1959), and others who made donations in memory of Michael, will receive its first performance at evensong. Written by Robin Holloway (KC 1961), it is entitled Thou art There and is dedicated to John Drury, former Dean of King's. At the Sung Eucharist in the morning of that day, the Choir will be joined by pupils of Jeremy West from The Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama in Lassus Missa "Bell' amfitrit' altera". The players will also contribute instrumental items. Jeremy's own ensemble, His Majestys Sagbutts & Cornetts, joins the Choir for a concert on Friday 19 June.

The Cathedral Organists' Association, meeting in conference at the College, attends evensong on 12 and 13 May. On both days there is music by composers with a King's connection: Tye and Gibbons were choristers, and Hacomplaynt was Provost. Patrick Gowers grandson, Richard, is now junior organ scholar. Simon Preston (KC 1958) was a chorister and organ scholar.

On Thursday 2 July, BBC Radio 3 will record for future transmission the annual service sung jointly by the choirs of King's and St John's Colleges. This is another of the events in the current series of celebrations for the 500th anniversary of the completion of the stone fabric of the Chapel. As is usual at the end of the Easter Term, music for the final two services has been chosen by leaving choristers and graduating choral scholars.

ILLUSTRATIONS

This term's illustrations are reproduced from photographs by Richard Lloyd Morgan.

Cover: An angel (in memoriam B.E.H.)

April: Prodigal son's dog; it has fleas!

May: The High Priest's dog

June: A dog at the trial of Jesus

July: Hounds in the Holy Hunt; Memorial Chapel

September: Greyhound; Tomb Chapel

COLLECTIONS AT REGULAR SERVICES

On Sunday mornings we make a collection to support a Charity. At other services there is an opportunity to make a contribution to the retiring collection which is a vital source of income for the Chapel and Choir. Please use the envelope provided to make your donation, adding your details if you are a UK taxpayer so that we can benefit from Gift Aid. If you would like to make a donation by cheque at a later date, please send it to The Revd Dr Stephen Cherry, The Dean, King's College, Cambridge, CB2 1ST or email dean@kings.cam.ac.uk for information, should you be able to make a significant or ongoing contribution to our work.

Collections from the Lent Term raised £830.31 for Centre 33, a charity which helps young people in Cambridgeshire fulfil their potential through a range of free and confidential services. £972.15 was raised for War Child, a charity that directly transforms the lives of tens of thousands of children through protection, education, livelihoods and advocacy in conflict-affected areas. We thank you for your generous support.

Sunday morning collections this term will be divided between Winter-comfort and Médecins Sans Frontières.

PEOPLE

This term Mr Ian Griffiths moves into a new role at the Chapel, Dean's Verger. Mrs Jan Copeland also has a slightly new role as Chapel Manager. This means that Ian is the first port of call for all matters connected with services. Jan retains oversight of the Chapel's life in the areas of visits, tourism and non-liturgical events.

At the end of the Long Vacation Term we say farewell to Richard Lloyd Morgan, whose service as College Chaplain has been exceptional in quality, as well as length, and very widely appreciated. He will be greatly missed, and remembered with warm affection and deep gratitude.

The Friends of King's College, Chapel and Choir

The Chapel of King's College, Cambridge is one of the most important medieval buildings in Europe. Since its Foundation by King Henry VI over five centuries ago, choral services have been an essential part of the daily life of the College.

The architectural majesty of the Chapel and the great musical quality of the Choir are admired and loved by millions of people the world over. Yet the College is solely responsible for the maintenance of the Chapel and the costs of the Choir.

The Friends of King's College, Chapel and Choir programme encourages and recognises the financial support of individuals, families, foundations and organisations.

Gifts and bequests from Friends provide essential funding for the College. As a Friend, you help to ensure that the brightest and most promising students attend King's, to support teaching and research by an extraordinary Fellowship, and to restore and maintain our remarkable buildings, including the iconic Chapel. In addition, many Friends choose specifically to support the Choir by helping with the refurbishment of the great organ, funding for choristerships, sponsoring travel, and contributing to the Choir endowment fund.

To make a gift to the College (including international donations) or for more information on ways to support the College, Chapel and Choir, please get in touch:
